

to include Montgomery county; the question thereon was accordingly propounded, and determined in the negative.

On motion by Mr. Banning, the question was put on filling up the blank in the last line of the second section with the word, "thirty," and determined in the negative.

On motion by Mr. Barnes, the second section was amended, by striking out therefrom the following words, "and that in the aggregate not to exceed — gallons," in the fourth and fifth lines of the printed copy.

On motion by Mr. Barnes, the fifth section was amended, by the following words being stricken therefrom, viz. "also for an overseer and a physician for said Poor's or Alms house," in the fourth and fifth lines of the printed copy.

On motion by Mr. Barnes, the said section was further amended by striking therefrom the words, "or services," in the 8th and 9th lines of the printed copy.

On motion by Mr. Stevens, the first section was reconsidered for the purpose of inserting therein Queen Anne's county; which was accordingly inserted.

On motion by Mr. Lansdale, the first section was again reconsidered for the purpose of inserting therein Montgomery county; which was inserted accordingly.

The bill having been read throughout, and amended as above, the question was propounded, Shall the said bill pass?

Resolved in the affirmative, and the bill being passed, was sent to the senate for concurrence.

The house proceeded to the consideration of the bill, reported by Mr. Hope, entitled, An act to alter and amend so much of the constitution and form of government, as relates to clerks of the county courts and registers of wills, within this state; and on the second reading thereof, Mr. John W. Thomas moved, and the question was accordingly propounded, that the first enacting clause or section thereof be wholly stricken out?
